University of Batangas
University of Cebu
University of Northern Philippines
University of San Agustin
University of San Carlos
University of St. La Salle
University of Santo Tomas
University of the Cordilleras
University of the Philippines
Xavier University

No law school shall have more than three (3) awardees. Applications from those who have submitted or will submit entries for the FLP Dissertation Contest are encouraged. FLP officers, staff and their relatives up to the third degree of consanguinity or affinity are not eligible to join. FLP reserves the right to reject any nomination/applicant at its sole discretion.

The scholarship is merit-based and may be received in addition to existing scholarships, funding, or other financial assistance being availed of by the awardees.

2. Qualifications. Nominees/applicants must satisfy the following:

- Incumbent third (3rd) year student in one of the eligible law schools;
- In the top 20 of the batch of their respective law schools in terms of academic performance;
- Must have a cumulative grade point average (GPA) not lower than 85% or 2.25 for the immediately preceding school year (2018-2019);
- No dropped subject and no grade lower than 75% or 3.0 during his or her stay at the law school;
- Must not have taken a leave of absence for the immediately preceding school year (2018-2019); and,
- Must have enrolled and completed the full load for the first two (2) years of law school.

Third year FLP scholars of AY 2018-2019 may continue receiving the grant for their fourth year provided that they maintain a GPA as provided in Section 2.3 computed for the year, with no grade lower than as provided in Section 2.4. They must likewise have not dropped any subject nor taken a leave of absence. They must always enroll and complete a full load for each semester. FLP shall require the submission of copies of their official transcripts of records every semester.

3. Submissions. Applicants must submit an essay written in English with a minimum of 2,000 words and a maximum of 3,000 words. It should be printed on an 11-inch by 8.5-inch white bond paper with text in 14-point font size, Times New Roman, single-spaced, with one-inch margins on both sides, top and bottom.

The essay must be on the philosophy of the Foundation, expanding on and espousing the precept: safeguarding of liberty and nurturing of prosperity under the rule of law, and how he/she will apply the same in his/her legal career. The essay should answer, inter alia, the following questions:

- What do you understand by the philosophy of liberty and prosperity under the rule of law?
- How can you promote this philosophy as a student? How will you apply this in your legal career?

Suggested resources on the precept can be found at <https://libpros.com/cj-panganibans-speeches-on-liberty-and-prosperity/>. See this resource in particular. Applicants may also refer to this this resource.

The following should be mailed or hand carried to: Foundation for Liberty and Prosperity, 3rd Floor, PCCI Corporate Centre, 118 L.P. Leviste Street, Salcedo Village, Makati City. These documents should ALSO be transmitted electronically to secretariat@libpros.com.

1. one copy of the duly accomplished FLP Scholarship Application Form and the FLP Data Privacy Statement and Consent Form.
2. one copy of the nominee's/applicant's official transcript of school records for the first two years of law school for the incoming third year applicants and the first three years of law school for the incoming fourth year applicants
3. one (1) hard copy of the essay
4. a certification from the School Secretary/Registrar or any authorized school official that the applicant

1. is among the top 20 of his/her batch in law school in terms of academic performance; and
2. has enrolled and completed the full load for the first two (2) years of law school

4. Interview. There will be an interview to be conducted by the FLP Panel of Judges who will be given full discretion in the conduct of the said interview.

5. Judging and Selection. Judging will be made by the FLP Panel of Judges. The Panel shall consider the candidate's ability to demonstrate clearly, logically and concisely what he/she has done and intends to do to propagate and espouse the philosophy of liberty and prosperity under the rule of law. Although the scholarship is merit based, the less privileged shall be preferred in case of a tie between two nominees. Selection shall be final when affirmed by the FLP.

6. Awarding. The FLP Scholarship is a monetary scholarship award of ₱200,000 of which a maximum of ₱100,000 shall be for tuition fee and ₱20,000 for book allowance. The amounts for the tuition fee and the book allowance will be transferred to the account of the student created especially for this purpose and in tranches corresponding to the schedule of payment for tuition fee per semester of the pertinent academic institution. The remaining ₱80,000 is for the scholar's stipend. Only such amount needed shall be deposited. If the tuition fee component of the monetary scholarship award is in excess of the awardee's tuition, the balance will be returned to FLP. If the awardee is entitled to another scholarship award, he/she will still receive the cash monetary scholarship award to be provided by the FLP.

7. Unclaimed award. If, for any reason, an awardee is unable to attend schooling or is unable to claim the monetary scholarship award, FLP shall cancel said scholarship award and grant it to another qualified nominee at its discretion.

8. Reimbursement. Considering the deadline for applications provided in Section 10, awardees of the FLP scholarship who already paid the tuition for the corresponding semester will be reimbursed upon submission of proof of payment. Where partial payment has been made by the awardee as allowed by the law school, FLP will likewise reimburse the same upon submission of proof of payment and deposit the balance for the tuition fee as provided in Section 6 above.

9. Agreement. Awardees must agree to the terms and conditions of the FLP Scholarship Program, including but not limited to, the requirement to provide volunteer services for the Foundation as well as giving back to the FLP Scholarship Program to ensure its sustainability such as teaching law subjects that espouse the philosophy of liberty and prosperity, developing a concept/program along the philosophy of the FLP and commitment to mentoring other law students, subject to institutional arrangements with partner law schools. Awardees must likewise agree to enter into a formal commitment agreement with FLP and the pertinent academic institution for this purpose.

10. Deadline. The deadline for the submission of nominations/applications is on or before 5 p.m. of September 30, 2019.

11. Revisions. FLP reserves the right to update and revise the guidelines of the program which shall be announced in its official website.

12. Financial Commitment. The scholarship is subject to FLP's receipt of funding from its donors and partners. While FLP has secured funding for the school year 2018-2019, if such donors and partners fail to provide funding for the subsequent school years, the awards may be terminated by FLP. The Foundation, its trustees, officers, and staff shall not be liable if such donors and partners fail to provide the funds for the monetary award or revoke such funding.
